

Virginia Wesleyan College is a small, four-year liberal arts institution affiliated with the United Methodist Church. Home to only 1,400 students, resident and commuter, the 300-acre campus rests on the border of Norfolk and Virginia Beach in the heart of the historic Hampton Roads area. Virginia Wesleyan provides a prime opportunity for students to learn both in and out of the classroom, offering more than 30 majors and more than 60 clubs and organizations. Additionally, the College boasts 17 intercollegiate sports and competes in the Old Dominion Athletic Conference and NCAA Division III.

AT A GLANCE

Small—providing a family atmosphere where students and faculty know each other well

- 1,146 day students, 300 evening students, 83 fulltime faculty
- Student to Faculty Ratio 13 to 1
- Average Class Size 13.8

Undergraduate—preparing a well-rounded student for graduate school and the world of work

- Offering opportunities for hands-on undergraduate research
- Participating in real-world internships

Liberal Arts & Sciences—exploring new ideas and learning to reason critically, communicate effectively, and understand relationships across broad fields of knowledge

- Seeking to create a student and faculty culture of inquiry

Global Perspective—honoring the importance of our place in the world by creating globally conscious citizens of the world

- Engaging students and faculty in the creation of a greener and more sustainable campus
- Promoting student and faculty international experiences
- Instilling a foremost understanding of religious freedom and tolerance

Fostering Future Leaders—giving direction that will enable students to lead lives of significance

- Involving students and faculty in meaningful community service
- Providing a wide array of extracurricular involvement
- Achieving one of the top Division III athletic programs in the country
- Expecting students to live by the honor code

Vision—aspiring to be a Phi Beta Kappa caliber institution by the end of the decade