

Virginia Wesleyan College
Athletic Hall of Fame
Induction Criteria

- Any individual of good character who has given outstanding performance in athletic competition at Virginia Wesleyan shall be eligible for nomination five years after the graduation of his or her class.
- Persons who have not qualified for a degree, but left the College in good standing, may be nominated (good standing is defined as a 2.0 GPA and not separated for disciplinary reasons).
- Nominees may also include alumni with postgraduate achievement in sports, coaches, trainers, and other persons who have made outstanding contributions to intercollegiate athletics at Virginia Wesleyan.
- An individual may be nominated posthumously.
- No voting member of the Athletics Hall of Fame Committee shall be eligible for consideration during his or her term on the Committee.
- The Hall of Fame Committee, at its own discretion and upon unanimous vote, may authorize induction of a person who falls outside the defined criteria.
- The Committee may also authorize “Team Induction” to teams in recognition of a team’s outstanding accomplishments. Teams shall be eligible for nomination after five years.
- No more than eight (8) inductees will be included in the Charter Membership. In subsequent years, no more than five (5) living inductees and one deceased may be inducted.
